DIRECTORS NOTES

Artistic Directors: Ian O'Connor and Noah Payeur

Welcome to the Derry Opera House and welcome to the Londonderry High School Drama Club production of "Footloose: The Musical"!

The title of this show will automatically convey certain images: Kevin Bacon in his big breakout role, the fashion and style of the 1980's, and the central themes of belonging, rebellion, and expression through dance. It is through these motifs that our students have shown their ability to inhabit characters that express themselves in ways that they may either personally agree or disagree with. Ren and his friends want to dance and Reverend Shaw truly believes that dancing is a gateway to dangerous choices and consequences. Conflict breeds drama and this show has a strong dynamic between our characters representing this central contention.

We would like to give some special shout outs. First to seniors Mason Turek & Madison Tufts for their tireless efforts in being our dance choreographers! They approached us late last year, after we announced we were doing "Footloose" in 2025, and asked if they could spend the summer coming up with the dances. We appreciate when students take initiative and want to be more active in the process. We gave them our full support and, as you will see shortly, they did an incredible job! Next to senior Reya Rivera for not only being a fantastic actor/singer/dancer, but discovering her artistic side and taking a prominent role in the design of our set! Speaking of the set, another massive thank you goes to Mr. Tommy Tremonte and his crew for dedicating and donating their time to assemble this remarkable set that you see before you.

We cannot begin to describe how immensely proud we are of all our students, seniors to freshmen, our tech team, and crew! We truly believe that the arts are a much needed and desired part of our co-curricular activities at Londonderry High School as well as their importance to our culture and identity. We believe that the performing arts are an essential experience for these students in discovering and fostering their imaginations, creativity, and cooperation as they prepare to go out into the wide world.

Thank you for supporting the arts, your students, and the school. We hope you enjoy the show!

Co-Artistic Directors,

Ian O'Connor Noah Payeur

Producing Director: Ryan Barrett

Welcome to the Derry Opera House for our second show of the season "Footloose: The Musical!" We hope you enjoy this show and the trip to Bomont. I would be remiss if I did not take a moment to thank a few people that without their help this production would not be possible: Tommy Tremonte, Sam Bailey, Amber Ekroth, and Danielle Barrett for their help in building and painting the set. It takes a lot of hours to get the set fully built and without them we would have an empty stage, Patrick Pettengill for his continued support of our program and helping us get all things tech organized, and so many more people that without their support our stage season at the Derry Opera House would not be possible.

Also, join us for Spring Theatre Night which is taking place on May 20th, 2025 at 7:00 PM at the Derry Opera House! Ticket information will be on our website (lancerdramaclub.org) in April!

Thank you for your continued support and enjoy the show!

- Ryan Barrett (Producing and Administrative Director)
